

CALIFORNIA PERFORMANCE REVIEW (CPR)

After being voted  into office, Governor Schwarzenegger started a process to make government better for the people of California . This process was called the California Performance Review (CPR) . The report  has hundreds of recommendations to make government better.

On August 3, 2004, the CPR gave  the report  to the Governor , who said he wants  to hear  from many people  before deciding how to respond to the report . The Governor  has appointed a special group  to hold public hearings  on the report . The hearing for things about services for people  with disabilities  will be held on August 20, 2004 in San Diego.

The CPR report

services to people  with disabilities  :

1. Move  the Vocational Rehabilitation  program to a new department that will focus on getting people  training and jobs  .
2. Get more federal money  for people  living in ICF/DD homes  .
3. Contract to buy  wheelchairs  and other things for people  .
4. Move  the In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) program to another department.
5. Reorganize government to have fewer  departments and put the Department of Developmental Services DDS into a new  division of the Health and Human Services Department call the Services to Disabled  Division.
